 BLOOD DONOR MONTH ***

[M07-651]

WHEREAS, new blood banking data suggests that the eligible donor pool in the United States is substantially smaller than previously thought, representing less than 38 percent of adults age 18 – 65, and only a minority of these individuals, less than eight percent, actually donate blood each year; and

WHEREAS, the supply of blood products needs constant replenishment for the protection of patients, and in Arizona, there is a need for additional healthy, regular volunteer donors to join the ranks of those who already give themselves so generously; and

WHEREAS, citizens in good health should consider donating; and

WHEREAS, civic and service organizations and businesses should consider forming blood donor groups;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim January 2008 as

* PEARL HARBOR REMEMBRANCE DAY 2007 *

[M07-661]

WHEREAS, on the morning of December 7, 1941, America was attacked without warning at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii; by the air and naval forces of Imperial Japan. More than 2,400 persons perished and another 1,100 were wounded. Our Pacific Fleet was crippled and our air power was critically damaged; and

WHEREAS, the losses suffered that day shocked our Nation with the realization that American soil was not immune to the ravages of war; and

WHEREAS, the attack jolted our Nation and forced us into a world war of devastation and brought forth unparalleled courage and determination from soldiers and civilians alike; and

WHEREAS, in response; Americans answered our country's call to the battlefield, to work in the factories, farms, mines, and shipyards; remembering Pearl Harbor by their deeds, their devotion to duty, and their willingness to fight for freedom. The attack at Pearl Harbor fired the American spirit with a determination that freedom would not fall to tyranny; and the United States fought to victory, preserving a world in which democracy could grow; and

WHEREAS, it is vital that we pass on to a new generation of Americans, the lessons learned from the Pearl Harbor attack, and to remain vigilant against threats to our values of democracy and freedom; and

WHEREAS, this Nation and State owe a great debt to those men and women who served in the military during this time and we especially recognize today, the loss of the personnel who went down with the U.S.S. Arizona; and

WHEREAS, so that future generations understand and appreciate the sacrifices that these courageous veterans made to ensure our freedom, we set aside time on this 66th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor to honor those who served our nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim December 7, 2007 as

* PEARL HARBOR REMEMBRANCE DAY 2007 *

and call upon all citizens of Arizona to join with others across the nation in honoring all veterans of World War II and especially those who were at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941 and call upon state and local officials, active military, national guard, reserves, veterans, historians, educators, and private organizations to observe this day and REMEMBER PEARL HARBOR.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Arizona
